

SENIOR RAILSPLITTER
JUNE '38

ABRAHAM LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL MURAL

THE SPIRIT OF LINCOLN CARRIES ON

"It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us — that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from this earth."

—A. LINCOLN.

ADVISERS

After graduation—Youth ever looks forward with hope and ambition. May your visions materialize into activities of service to your community worthy of your generation.

—AARON C. HUTCHENS, Principal

There is a need and a place of work in life for you. Find it, think seriously of it, plan wisely for it. Fill this niche to the best of your ability. Do even more than is asked of you, and you have taken two important steps toward success.

—EMMETT J. HASTY, Vice-Principal

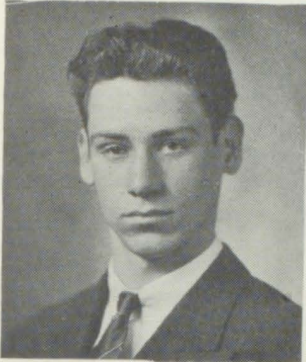

May you live successfully and graciously; may you be able to face new and unexpected situations, cultural richness, acquaintance with the social scene and artistry in every day living.

—VIDA B. HALL, Girls' Adviser

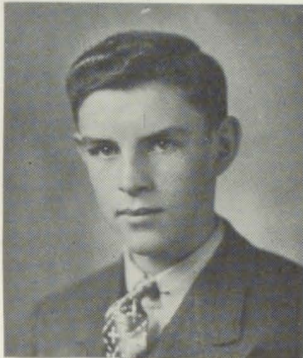

CLASS OFFICERS

ROY MORTIMORE

President of the June 1938 senior class is one of those rare personalities who always fits himself to every occasion. He has been ready and willing to fill his position and has done it ably at all times.

DWAYNE STEBBINS

Vice-President of the June 1938 senior class is one very "regular guy," who has not only participated in sports, but has been an excellent sports editor of the Railsplitter. His ever ready willingness to help is a quality that has gained him many friends among his classmates.

KATHLEEN MAE LENIUS

Known to her classmates as "Pee-Wee" she is the secretary of the senior class and one of Lincoln's leading girl athletes. She is a brunette with lively brown eyes. After graduation she intends to enter nurses' training.

MANDO OLIVER

Treasurer of the June 1938 senior class is a dynamic salesman and advertising sales manager of the regular Railsplitter. In the years he has been in Lincoln he has made many friends in the faculty and student body.

CLASS SONG

Tune: "Thanks for the Memories."

Thanks for the memories
Of school days on the run, lots of jolly fun,
Of many books and meaning looks
For lessons left undone,
How lovely it was.

Thanks for the memories of Latin,
and of math,
And oh that English class,
Our warning slips, the days we skipped,
And thought we'd never pass,
How lovely it was.

Many a friend we have made here,
We'll always remember our days
here,
And oh it was swell while it lasted,
We did have fun, an education won.

Thanks for the memories of football in the fall,
And track and basketball,
Of plays and all the parties that we always will recall,
Oh thank you so much!

SCHOOL SONG

We're loyal to you, Lincoln High,
We're Maroon and Gold, Lincoln
High,
We'll back you to stand,
'Gainst the best in the land,
For we know you have sand
Lincoln High—Rahl! Rahl!

Go smashing ahead, Lincoln High,
Go crashing ahead, Lincoln High,
Our team is our fame protector,
On boys, for we expect a victory
For you, Lincoln High!

"There will always be need for men and women who have the nerve and the patience and the intelligence and the initiative to train themselves for excellent performance. They may suffer temporary inconvenience, but they will not permanently be denied an opportunity. And when their chance comes, they will be ready for it."—American Observer.

"Character . . . Character is like a tree and reputation like its shadow. The shadow is what we think of it; the tree is the real thing."—Lincoln.

LINCOLN LOYALTY CREED

Believing loyalty to be unswerving allegiance to my school and to the principles and ideals for which it stands, and believing that, for the general good these standards must be upheld even though they conflict with my personal inclinations, I pledge myself to support the policies of Lincoln High; to so guard my conduct as to give no cause for criticism of my school; and to be an example others may follow with pride to themselves and honor to Lincoln High.

"We need today nothing so much as a realistic search for truth; a search characterized by the elimination of prejudice; a search which is honest and constructive; one which will enable patriotic Americans to serve well the country that they love."—American Observer.

SPIKES . . . FAIRWAY

TRACK HIGHLIGHTS

WITH the track season yet incomplete, as the Senior Railsplitter goes to press, Lincoln has had a most successful season.

Warming up the week before in the City Indoor track meet, the Railsplitters captured fourth in the medley relay in the State Indoor meet at Iowa City, April 2.

They journeyed to Winterset on April 23 to compete in the first Winterset relays. The special event winners included Al Beck who captured the mile run and Dick Rittel who broke the string in the low hurdles. The tracksters also brought back a trophy in the four-lap relay. This team was composed of Howard Trent, Dick Peterson, Adam Stirling, and Roy Mortimore.

In the South Central Conference meet at Indianola, the cinder men gathered 62 points. A trophy was won in the two-mile relay. Special event winners included: Don Slye in the 100-yard dash, Al Beck in the mile run, and Dick Rittel in the 200-yard low hurdles.

Lincoln qualified six men to enter the state meet. They are:

Dick Rittel, 200-yard low hurdles; Al Beck, mile run; and the two-mile relay, composed of Adam Stirling, Roy Mortimore, Dick Peterson, and Howard Trent.

Trackmen who will graduate this year include: Dick Rittel, Don Slye, Roy Mortimore, and Howard Trent.

. . . FORE! . . .

As this Senior Railsplitter goes to press, the Lincoln high golfers have so far given a good account of themselves.

After turning back East 19½ to 4½ the Railsplitters packed their war clubs and journeyed to Cedar Rapids for the Franklin high Invitation Meet. The Railsplitters emerged with a tie for fourth place with the host team. Boone captured top honors.

The following week a spirited group of Lincoln golfers downed Roosevelt 6½ to 5½ on the Woodside course.

Lincoln's Capable Tanksters

With a successful season behind them these boys are looking forward to even greater success for the next semester.

YOUNKERS

"ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE . . ."

LIGHTS! Places! Curtain! Action! These are but few of the words which come from Lincoln's worthy dramatic instructor, Vesper Price. The appreciation of great dramatic work and love of the stage are but few of the aims of all the students who study drama in Lincoln high school. One of the foremost purposes of the dramatic department is to give a stage production successfully and to give to those who attend the performances a greater conception and a broader appreciation of worthwhile drama.

A great addition towards upholding the standards of the department is the wonderfully equipped stage and the beautiful auditorium. The public address system which is being bought for the purpose of enabling the public to hear the presentation more clearly, is also a great asset.

This semester has seen two outstanding plays produced under the careful direction of Miss Price. "Anne of Green Gables" being the first, and "The Patsy," the last play of the year.

Miss Price also has charge of the speech department. In this department the fundamentals for which the students strive are, at the end of the year, to have clear enunciation and to be able to speak more distinctly. Another aim is to eradicate handicaps which might prevent students from speaking in public effectively. A great advantage of the public address system is its usefulness in the speech class. Each student is given an opportunity to speak over the "mike," and also to give talks from the stage. This is a great help in developing one's ability in speech.

With the splendid assistance and work of Miss Price, both the dramatic and speech departments of Lincoln high are making rapid progress. This persistent and constant striving is very essential in making the department perfect in all ways.

A PICTURE — WORTH TEN THOUSAND WORDS

PATIENCE and untiring effort built the foundation for the successful and talented services rendered to Lincoln high during the last year, by the art department. With the aid and capable supervision of Miss Lewis, senior art instructor, the department has been a great factor in promoting school drives and stage productions, as well as gaining national recognition through contests held for student competition.

will encourage future students to undertake similar steps in furthering art appreciation.

This year superior and excellent ratings were awarded to Arlene Wenger and Maxine Rummans at the Iowa high school Art Contest. Other laurels added to those already claimed by the art department are the honorable mention awarded to Marian Durand in the National Scholastic Art contest and the use of Burton Lenhart's linoleum cut as a Thanksgiving menu for a navy battleship.

Working in co-operation with the dramatics department and costume committee, the art students have helped create effective stage settings and costumes, not to mention colorful publicity and neat program cover designs.

During each semester the art students are given experience in drawing for the Younkers Railsplitter ad. Illustrations by Barbara Cox, Elizabeth Fillingham and Mary Woodman have been published during the last school year in the line of advertising art. This year Barbara Cox represented Lincoln high during high school day in the Younkers advertising art department.

As a new art project a committee composed of Barbara Cox, Ralph Figg, Elizabeth Fillingham, and Mary Woodman, last fall undertook the planning and construction of the Abraham Lincoln Mural.

(Note: Railsplitter frontispiece.) It is hoped that this

Thus through varied activities in the art department, so aptly advised by Miss Lewis, it is hoped that a greater interest in art appreciation will develop in the future.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT RATES HIGH

'W AY back in 1930 when the music department had less than one-fourth its present enrollment, Frederick E. Engel started the long and difficult task of building up an outstanding set of music organizations. Since that time many "crack" outfits have been turned out. This year the band has had sixty-nine members, the chorus seventy-five, and the orchestra fifty-five.

Important along its rise, the department has organized the Music Parents' Club, which has engineered the purchase of many instruments, of new band uniforms, and just last year, choir robes.

With perfection as the standard, many graduates have spent pleasant years of work—but really worked—in the music department. The band, both in organization and in discipline, is semi-military. The officers, elected by the band members, are required to execute certain duties. These officers are also given authority and must accept responsibility and those who have had this excellent training feel it invaluable.

The band has entered contests in the past and placed third division in both concert and marching band classes at the National Contest in 1934. However, Des Moines high school music organizations have not been allowed in contests since 1934. This includes, besides bands, choruses and orchestras. Though neither of the latter organizations have participated in contests, they have turned in many creditable performances.

Lincoln high is unique in that it has been the only high school in the city to establish an annual opera as a "tradition." Since the beginning of this custom, starting with the opera "Martha" in the fall of 1935, the department has excellently rendered "The Chimes of Normandy" in 1937 and "The Mikado" in 1938.

The annual concert in which the band, orchestra, and choruses take part, presented guest conductors such as: Karl L. King and Prof. Stanford Hulshizer in the year 1937, and Tolbert MacRae, head of department of music at Iowa State college, and Clate Chenette, director of Ames Municipal Band, in 1938.

Besides having several fine groups in the department, there are many excellent soloists. These soloists received high rankings in contests this year; sixteen superior ratings having been won in the sub-district contest, and three in the district competition.

Seniors in the band include Warren Cassel, Ruth Comiskey, Clifford Deaton, Ray King and Bobby Thomas. Those leaving the A Capella Choir are Maxine Aldine, Warren Cassel, Ruth Comiskey, Betty Davis, Ralph Figg, Eva Higgins, Teresa Jaquinta, Ray King, Burton Lenhart, Carol McClintic, Audrey Reit, Virginia Rogers, Katherine Sciacchitano, Vivian Stanley, Kenneth Smith, Bobby Thomas, Bill Woodman, and Viola Work.

The training of the music students goes farther than playing or singing—it goes on to teach them something about living, which is the ultimate aim of all education.

TENNIS REVIEW

REMAINING intact from last season the Railsplitter net team opened their season at Oskaloosa and collected nine points to finish fourth among the nine schools participating. The team consisted of Dick Comiskey and Ralph Mauro singles, and Armand Gazzo and Jim Kinney doubles.

In their second meet the team beat Dowling high 3 to 0, using the same boys that went to Oskaloosa. In the East meet a whole team of eight boys was used; adding Jim Comiskey and Karl Anderson to the singles, and Mike Macri and Charles Comito as the second doubles team. The score ended in a 3 to 3 tie.

Losing to Roosevelt 5 to 1 completes their schedule thus far. Timothy Cassiday, a fine player, was lost to the team due to an accident in the gym.

FEMININE SPORTS

GIRLS sports are proving to be more popular at Lincoln high every year. Various activities are provided for those girls who enjoy athletics.

Every other Thursday, the Leaders club, which is organized to promote good leadership and feeling among girls, have their meeting. The girls attend to business of the club and learn how to play and officiate the different sports. Officers of the club are: Hazel Cartmill, president; Kathleen Lenius, vice president; Martha Wright, secretary; Mary Ellen Wilson, treasurer.

Another active club is the Porpoise club. Officers are: Marie Martz, president; Merriel Jones, vice president; Jean Darnes, secretary; Virginia Kolls, treasurer.

After having a little difficulty in getting organized, the feminine golfers of Lincoln high, composed of Viola Blakely, Jean Darnes, Marie Martz, Ada Nizzi, and Frances Wilcoxson, gave a good account of themselves. They are under the guidance of Miss Margaret McEniry.

Tennis veterans included: Kathleen Lenius, Kay Fisher, Virginia Kolls, Louise Morris, Jean Munger, Barbara Cox, and Ann Caldwell. Miss Cripe sponsors this group.

SWIMMING HIGHLIGHTS

LINCOLN high was well represented last swimming season by a hard working group of boys and a very capable coach, Lorin H. Graaff.

In the city competition the Railsplitter tanksters overcame East high twice in dual meets and finished third in both all-city meets. They managed to give North and Roosevelt good competition, but lacked the punch in various strokes to overcome their city rivals.

In outside competition the Railsplitters defeated Boone twice, lost a hard fought meet to Fort Dodge, and later tied Fort Dodge at the Lincoln pool.

Throughout the season the Lincoln paddlers were led by David Emery who, in his final city meet, established two new city records, breaking the 40 and 100-yard free style marks which he had been capturing firsts in all season.

Next season the whole team will be intact with the exception of Emery and Figg, who graduate. There will also be a number of the junior high swimming team members who finished second in the City Junior Swimming Meet.

CLASS WILL

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, part of the Senior Class of June, '38, as our last will and testament, bequeath the following abilities and possessions to the undergraduates.

Ray Anderson leaves his position on the stage crew to John Zeroni. Clara Barber leaves her pretty brown eyes to Maxine Faxel. Charles Bonnanno leaves his "slug of type" to Bob Robinson. Don Andriano wishes to will his checker ability to Mr. Weeks.

Henry Brickman leaves his coal truck to Beverly Couchman. Mary Jean Calvert leaves her stenographic ambitions to Eugene Morris. Don Slye leaves to become a sports announcer.

Marjorie Clark wills her quietness to Maxine Kelley. Richard Comiskey leaves his ability to gripe to Jack Morgan. John Cooper leaves reluctantly his extensive line to Mary Marie Lawson. Barbara Cox leaves her long hair to the make-up department for mustaches. Elmer Monroe Darnall, Jr., leaves his ability to read poetry to Helen McConkey. Betty Davis leaves her red hair to Coach Harris.

David Emery wills his studiousness to Andrew Lucas.

Jack Faxel leaves the remains of Miss Moroney's car.

Marguerite Greene leaves her sewing ability to Jean Darnes. John Hilley wills his punctuality (?) to Wilma Reynolds. Howard Hougham leaves his excess weight to Bill Rumbaugh. Esther Hughes wills her personality speech to Edward Logel. Ray King leaves and takes his motorcycle with him, we hope. Armand Gazzo leaves his tennis playing ability to Dick Rittle.

Bill Cox is taking everything he can with him. Kenneth Kottmeier leaves his horsemanship to Dorset Donovan. Burton Lenhart wills his daintiness to George Sample. Lyle Ledlie wills his farming ability to Don Harbert. Dorothy Malloy leaves Lincoln high school for Billy Cox.

Helen Nall leaves Harold Howell alone and lonesome.

Richard McConkey leaves.

Roy Mortimore leaves his ability to keep Senior meeting in order to the next class president. Geneva Neal leaves her trip to Washington to be forgotten. Kenneth Smith wills his ants to the biology department. Jack Stevens leaves Marjorie Millar, but we're skeptical. Ralph Figg leaves his beard to David Woodman. Howard Trent thinks he should leave his determination to Tom Spragg.

Kay Lenius leaves her coiffure to Bonzie Custer.

Elmer Tucker leaves his paper route for swabbing decks on a U. S. battleship. Wilma Vance leaves her speech making ability to Paul Van Dyke. Frances Wilcoxson leaves all her boy friends to Frances Pervier. Bill Woodman leaves his flying shirt tails to Jack Morgan. George Wyckoff thinks Ruth Grange needs his dancing ability. Mary Macri leaves her dainty feet to Susan Sterrett.

Maxine Aldine leaves her soprano voice to John McFall. Vivian Stanley leaves a bottle of peroxide to Ada Nizzi. Dwayne Stebbins leaves home at 8:29. Roy Westripe leaves his noise making in assemblies to Virginia Cohron. Frances and Marie Leo leave their ability to dress alike to Frankie and Mildred Haney. Earline Allen has left her hair, believe it or not. Donald Anderson leaves his strictness as hall monitor to Dick Sorenson. Alfred Antonucci leaves his ability to play basketball in his back yard to Mary Palmer.

Marguerite Civitate leaves her ability to sell ads to Roy Wilhite, he'll need it.

Arlene Davis leaves her "umph" to Louise Morris. Marjorie Davis wills her dimples to Art Staude. Mildred Ellis leaves her morning lunch in journalism to Mary Ann Hutchings. Arthur Falkoski leaves his bookkeeping ability to John Mason. Alice Virden and Hazel Hargis leave Lincoln (for once) with a legitimate excuse.

Charles Harmon finally leaves.

Eva Higgins leaves her acting ability to Johnny Marinaro. Merriel Jones will leave her wavy hair to Connie Zapata. Eugene Norman wills his sleepiness in class to Carl Frisch. Grace Oliver leaves her love for home room to Ray Orr. Dorothy Henderson leaves her babyish ways to Jean Lonergan. Frances Herrebut leaves her shorthand ability to LaVera Barnes.

PROPHECY

TIME has passed quickly since the June '38 class has vacated the halls of Lincoln.

In the wilds of Africa we see Gladys Bennum, Vera Berry, and Mary Deviney, the three that always aspired to be biologists, looking for a jitter bug. Karl Andersen, renowned scientist, is financing the expedition.

Katherine Botkin is now happily married and living in New York. Viola Work is still living up to her name. Bobby Thomas, we see, is still a private in the national guards. He'll be a corporal by the time he retires. Charles Smith has just finished writing a history book. At the most exclusive night club on Park Avenue, owned by Frank Jaquinta, Clifford Deaton and his trombone are swinging out with one of the hottest bands in the country. Arthur Nizzi and his famous accordion are playing in it, and Helen De Vall is the featured dancer. Carol McClintic is the torch singer.

Marian Anania is private secretary to Vernon Calloway who has founded a private school. Margaret Highland has become the fastest typist in the world and has a job as stenographer to Mary Alice Genovese who is now a social worker. Josephine Nicoline is also a secretary; she's working for Frances Lucas who is now a famed criminal lawyer. Virginia Kolls is a movie star and Kae Fisher is a great actress. Lyle Fini is a trigonometry teacher and Lester Hughes has gained fame as an artist.

Junior Kinney and Ralph Mauro are now champs of tennis doubles. Jean Munger is a palmist in Younker's Mezzanine. Bertha Hartshorn is still studying and Juanita Thomas is working for her Ph.D. degree; also Maurine Simpson and Agnes Andrews are air stewardesses and Ruth Comiskey is now a physical education teacher with Teresa Jaquinta as her assistant. Clyde Meier and Robert Forsyth have jobs as skating instructors. Warren Cassel, now an educated bum, is running a gas station so he doesn't run out of gas any more. James Palmer is a tall man in a circus and Mando Oliver is the strong man in the same side show. Robert Mote is a radio announcer for the Cubs.

Bud Partridge is living happily (?) in Hawaii. Mary Pasinelli is a stylist and Betty Samuels a model. Virginia Schaff is advertising Max Factor's make-up while Sadie Pascuzzi advertises false eyelashes. Ann Caldwell is seen on billboards advertising tooth paste. Marie Pratt is a famous aviatrix. Audrey Reit, Hazel Kennelley, Lorabell Brooks, and Marguerite Cartmill are all housewives.

Candita Zenti has a girl's baseball team in the National League. Virginia Rogers and George Brownbridge are now singing in the Metropolitan. Buster Rodriguez is an All-American football player. Florence Blamey is teaching school. Mary Brownson is designing fashions in an exclusive dress shop while Mazie Dishon is styling hair. Dorothy Doane is now a wife in the Army and Mary Fatino is a rising young stenographer. Dorothy Hadley is a horticulturist and doing very well. Harold Saltzman is a golf professional while Maxine Wareham is a manicurist in her own shop.

So the class of '38 seems to be "doin' all right" at their strange and varied occupations.

Ruth Overman leaves her height to Rosabella Giannobule. Anna Ricilli leaves her cheery smile to Evelyn Jarnigan. Margaret Munzenmaier leaves her fidgetiness to Dot Short. Harold Nelson leaves, but is tempted to come back. Mary Moon leaves her typing ability to Barbara Tam. Katherine Sciacchitano wills her name to Virginia Smith.

MEANING BEHIND THE NAME

STUDYING the given names of the class of June 1938, we find names from the Hebrew, Greek, Old High German, Persian, Italian, Teutonic, Latin, Celtic, and Anglo-Saxon.

The names of the class and their meanings are given in this story.

"Beauty" is the meaning of "Ruth" which is Hebrew. The class boasts two Ruths, Ruth Comiskey and Ruth Overman.

From the Greek we have "Dorothy" which means "Gift of God". Thus Dorothy Mae Doane, Dorothy Henderson, Dorothy Malloy, and Dorothy Hadley.

Margaret Highland and Margaret Munzenmaier are "Pearls" according to their first names which are also Greek.

Old High German "Robert" means "Bright in fame" thus Robert Forsyth, and Robert Mote can analyze their names.

"Good Fortune" is the meaning of the name "Esther" which is of Persian background. Esther Hughes is the only Esther on the senior roll.

A Hebrew name meaning "Bitter" is "Marie". Lincoln's June '38 class consists of two, Marie Leo and Marie Pratt.

"A gracious gift of God" is the meaning of the Hebrew name "John". John Cooper and John Hilley, are the proud possessors of the name. The name "Jean" has the same meaning and it is the given name of Jean Munger.

"Helen" is a Greek word meaning "light" this is the name of Helen De Vall and Helen Nall.

"Mary and Josephine" which seem to be Lincoln's most popular feminine names are Hebrew words which mean "star of the sea". The following girls will probably answer when called by them: Mary Allen, Marian Anania, Mary Botkin, Mary Brownson, Mary Jean Calvert, Mary Macri, Mary Moon, Mary Pasinelli, and Josephine Nicoline.

Greek words meaning "Pure" are "Agnes" and "Katherine". The senior class consists of several such girls, Agnes Andrews, Katherine Fisher and Katherine Sciacchitano.

Though not boasting Italian parentage, Vera Berry has an Italian name which means "Uncertain".

"Betty" is a Hebrew word which means "Worshiper of God" and is the proud possession of Betty Davis and Betty Samuels.

"Helmet of Resolution" is the Old High German for "William". Two seniors claim this as their name, William Cox and William Woodman.

"Charles" which is also Old High German means "Manly" and is the name of several of the boys, Charles Bonanno, Charles Harmon, and Charles Smith.

"Raymond" is a Teutonic name which means "Wise Protected" and is the given name of Raymond Anderson and Raymond King.

A Latin name meaning "Beloved" is "David" and belongs to only one senior boy, David Emery.

"George" is a Greek word meaning "Landowner" and is the given name of George Brownbridge, and George Wyckoff.

"Proud Chief" is the meaning of the Celtic word "Donald", which is claimed by Donald Andersen, Donald Andriano, and Donald Slye.

James Palmer has a Hebrew name which means "Supplanter".

Frances Herrebut, Frances Leo, Frances Lucas, and Frances Wilcoxson, have a German name which means "Free".

"Arthur" is a Celtic name which means "High and Noble". Thus we have Arthur Nizzi and Arthur Falkoski.

An Old High German name meaning "Powerful" is "Richard". The senior class has one—Richard Comiskey.

"Harold" is an Anglo-Saxon name which means "A Champion". This name is claimed by Harold Nelson, and Harold Saltzman.

S stands for silly, and also for sappy.
We know we are but still we are happy.

E stands for empty, but not empty headed,
For in this head our brains (?) are embedded.

N stands for nutty, as you see by this pome.
It'll have to go on until we go home.

I for intelligence, for which we're alack.
If this doesn't suit you go sit on a tack!

O for originality, which you must admit
We have plenty of—or else we would quit.

R is for results, which we hope we'll attain,
And you can go home with a head in your pain.

S stands for sample; a piece of this is.
We hope you think our pome is greatly a whiz!

SENIOR POEMTRY

What a lovely group the seniors are;
They look much better from afar.
Educated to read, and write and paint—
What a lovely group—Oh yes, they aint!

SENIOR PRAYER

I ask Thee not, oh Lord, for material things of earth—
And I won't wail that I didn't get—wealth and a noble birth.
I'll never ask for a superior self—
For contentment all sublime.
Just help me keep my big mouth shut
At the right and proper time!

—W. C.

Five little senior kids,
Sitting in a row;
Two were in a class room,
Three were at a show.

A German name meaning "of the sea" is "Lester". There is only one in the senior class, Lester Hughes.

Teresa Jaquinta owns a Hebrew name which means "Carry ears of corn".

"Ann" or "Anna" is a Hebrew name meaning "Graceful star". Lincoln has one of each, Ann Caldwell and Anna Riccelli.

"Virgin" is a Latin word for "Virginia". This name is claimed by Virginia Kolls, Virginia Rogers, and Virginia Schaff.

"Kenneth," a Celtic name meaning "A Leader" belongs to Kenneth Kottmeier and Kenneth Smith.

Clara Barber possesses a Latin name which means "Bright".

"Defence" is the Old High German meaning for the name "Wilma" which is claimed by Wilma Vance.

"Dark eyes" is the Spanish meaning of the name "Juanita". Only one such name is found in the senior class—Juanita Thomas.

"Jack" is also a Hebrew name which means "A gracious gift of God". Jack Fazel and Jack Stevens are the only ones who possess this name.

NEEDLES—PINS—SCISSORS!

ADDITION, subtraction, multiplication, long division, and short division—all divisions put together by a home economist make for a perfect revision of home economics as portrayed in Lincoln high school.

The home economics department, under the capable supervision of Miss A. Irene Moroney, is one of constant activity. Those in the sewing department are required to complete certain projects during the semester. They start out with the simplest things, but at the end of the year they are quite accomplished seamstresses. Included in the course is the planning, cutting, stitching, and modeling of dresses, shorts, suits, formals, jodphurs, and most everything needed for a well dressed girl's complete wardrobe.

"The Clothing Revue," given recently by the home economics department, was one of the biggest successes of the season, due to the incessant work of the clothing classes under Miss Moroney's direction.

Those agile girls you hear singing at the sewing machines in 135 are none other than the girls of the costume committee who are kept busy clothing the semester productions such as "Murder Has Been Arranged," "Anne of Green Gables," and "The Patsy." Those girls who go around with pins decorating their smocks are Vera Blackford, Mary Brownson, Ruth Comiskey, Marguerite Green, Nadine Purdy, Betty Samuels, and Juanita Thomas, with Lorraine Downey acting as chairman.

No department in the school works any harder or tries any more to help the school get ahead than this department. Orchids to every member in it!

APPRECIATION TO RUTH GRANGE

The June, 1938, Senior Class wishes to express its thanks to Ruth Grange for her able assistance and original help in writing the Class Song.

CHANCELLOR'S ELM

- 1 A varied and complete curricula is offered in six colleges—Liberal Arts, Bible, Law, Education, Commerce and Finance, Fine Arts.
- 2 A distinguished faculty made up of friendly and helpful men and women, selected for their outstanding ability.
- 3 All the activities of a large university are available, but the most valuable asset of a small school is retained; personal contact with the faculty members.
- 4 It's fun to stay at home and attend college at the same time. You can combine the advantages of an excellent education and convenience of your own home in the metropolitan center of Des Moines.
